PICTURE CAPTIONS

News Conference on Iran Visit

80017/1 Amid the litter of cables, lights, photographic and recording equipment, seven Christian pastors and educators present their findings from a 10-day visit to Iran to a news conference at the Episcopal Church Center. Speaking, and seen on the monitor, (foreground), is the Rev. Dr. William Kirby, Methodist-Presbyterian Chaplain of Princeton University. Other participants are, from left, the Rev. Charles Kimball, an Islamic scholar of the Center for World Religions, Harvard Divinity School; the Rev. John Walsh, Baptist Chaplain at Princeton; the Rev. Dr. Jimmy Allen, President, Southern Baptist Convention Radio-TV Commission; the Rev. Charles Cesaretti, Public Issues Officer, the Episcopal Church; Dr. Kirby; Bishop Dale White, United Methodist District of New Jersey and Dr. Thomas Ricks, Georgetown University department of history.
